Chicago – The Chicago Market: Living and Giving is encouraging showrooms, exhibitors, buyers, retailers and sales reps to micro-blog through Twitter.com before, during and after its upcoming January Market, scheduled for January 21–27. The Chicago Market is partnering with Midwest-CBK to promote this opportunity.

“Midwest-CBK is partnering with the Chicago Market to bring January market attendees a cutting-edge way to take word-of-mouth information and amplify it, sharing tips, real-time information and updates throughout the market, and the opportunity to win great prizes,” said Frederic Contino, president, Midwest-CBK.

Chicago Market followers will have the chance to win prizes by using the Chicago Market hastag (#chitowngift) in all market-related tweets from January 14–27. Each tweet will count as a raffle ticket. Winners will be chosen each day from Friday, January 22–Monday, January 25. Winners will receive a Flip digital camcorder. A grand prize winner will be chosen on the last day of Market, Wednesday, January 27, and will receive a Sony 32” Bravia S-Series Flat Screen LCD television.
